My dear wife

I love to tell you all things as I go along; I love to talk with you before going to sleep: I love to think of you more than of any or than of all things under the Sun.

After visiting you and dear Mary this morning I went and called on Sarah Tanner. She is full of loving kindness for you and Fanny wants to know everything about you and means one of these days to come and see you.

After finishing my visit to the Tanners I went into the United States Court awhile and ^{then came home} dined at Judge Cranch's. At Table I was happy to hear the best encumbers on on - Professor & lect Dr Keith as the most learned man and the best preacher now extant. Next Monday he is to give me an ensq.

After dinner which you know takes place so late that we do not finish till nearly sundown I went to drink tea with Col. Johnson and Lady of Louis.
Both of them take a deep interest in my affairs: and the Col. thinks he will begin on my Bill in the Senate on Monday next. — I pray God to guide and assist him.

Coming home I called to see Mr. Barthly of Mansfield Ohio and Mr. Devanport of Barnesville Ohio. They are both most friendly to my cause and on Monday night will introduce me to many others.
So you see we are getting on. At all events we shall know something for or con next week.

Adieu my dear wife! — Tomorrow I mean for Mr. F. Allen your faithful
Wm. Chase
